Artworks can fit more than one genre.

Artists can make paintings that can be abstract or figurative.

Paul Cezanne and Clara Peeters artworks for example.

muted, mark-making

formal- studying artwork grid

landscape, portrait

shade- adding black to a colour to make a shade.

shadow

stippling paint

tint- adding white to a colour makes a tint vivid.

Arrange objects to create a still life composition.

Plan a painting by drawing first.

Organise painting equipment independently, making choices about tools and materials.

Knowledge of an artist

Use subject vocabulary confidently to describe and compare creative works.

Understand how artists use art to convey messages through the choices they make.

Evaluating and analysing

Use more complex vocabulary when discussing their own and others' art.

Discuss art, considering how it can affect the lives of the viewers or users of the piece.

three dimensional (3D)			Evaluate their work more regularly and independently during the planning and making process.
